Guan Gong Sculpture

This Guan Gong sculpture named “Fearless” ., his right hand is raised aloft with his palm facing upward to represent “Shun Tian” , while his left-hand punches downward in allusion to “Ying Di” , both of which mean obey nature. At the same time, he is shouting “be brave without fear” . In Chinese martial arts, the palm represents “literature” , while the fist represents “martial arts” . Therefore, this work represents Guan Gong’ s “integrity of literature and martial arts, inheritance of loyalty and righteousness” .
